Expedia, Bookings Holding VCC And RevoluCHARGE Update

The company would like to update shareholders concerning its revenue generating verticals RevoluPAY VCC Clearance and RevoluCHARGE for the month of November 2019. The unaudited November 2019 VCC turnover being approximately $CA 193,000. Likewise, pay-as-you-go phone top-ups have surpassed the unaudited approximately $CA 91,000 during the same month. Shareholders are reminded that no meaningful marketing efforts have been dedicated to either vertical thus far, yet this is a significant increase over the August 2019 numbers previously released. The growing user uptake of RevoluCHARGE and VCC continues to be largely by word-of-mouth.

PSD2 Bank License Update

The company would like to inform shareholders that the three-way communication between the Central Bank, Hogan Lovells and RevoluPAY CEO, Alfredo Manresa, has remained fluid over the past 14 days. The company continues to rapidly fulfil and comply with every request of the Central Bank concerning the company's pending approval for a PSD2 Banking License in Europe. Shareholders are reminded that the wholly owned subsidiary RevoluPAY S.L. submitted its license petition to the Central Bank on 22 November 2018. Inopportunistically, the new European PSD2 Licensing Regulations were Introduced into law the following day on 23 November 2018. To press, the Central Bank has not granted a Full PSD2 license to any new petitioner since the Nov 2018 change in law. The company remains confident that a proprietary PSD 2 license be granted.
